

Please be advised that there is no nurse on campus today. A nurse from Stanhope will be coming over to administer medications to students who need it.

The following announcement was made during morning announcements: Open esports is cancelled today. The next open esports session will take place after school next Monday. Please see Ms. Brown with any questions.